Milan, Jan. 14.

THE Fire which the Night between the 5th and 6th consum'd the Theatre in which Operas us'd to be perform'd, did other Damage more considerable than was at first believ'd, for Part of the Papers of the Secretary's Office were burnt. Count Thaun Viceroy of Naples, applies himself with great Diligence to raise considerable Sums of Money to send to King Charles in Catalonia. The Palatine Regiments of Foot, which Sail'd the beginning of this Month from Vado for Catalonia are commanded by General Count Etteren: General Schellard, who commands the Palatine Horse that did not embark with those other Succours, continues at Genoa, waiting for the return of the Squadron and Transports to imbark with the said Horse for Barcelona.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 31.

Vienna, Jan 18. The Duke of Mantua has lately sent a very submissive Letter to the Emperour; in which he throws himself upon his Imperial Majesty's Clemency, representing that he was compell'd by the French to act what he did in their Favour: He desires permission to see Naples and Milan: He extols the Exploits of the Duke of Savoy, and says he deserves not only the Montferrat for his Reward, but even intire Kingdoms: And he concludes with beseeching the Emperour to call to mind, that the Blood which runs in his Veins had its Source from the House of Austria. 'Tis said the Person who brought this Letter is taken into Custody. 'Tis also reported that the Duke of Mantua has sent Count John Baptist Velo a Native of Vicenza, to the Queen of great Britain and the States of Holland, to acknowledge his Misdeeds, and intreat them to use their good Offices with his Imperial Majesty that he may be receiv'd into Grace. Some Advices from Upper Hungary tell us, that Prince Ragotski has caus'd 6 Persons of Quality to be siez'd and confin'd, among them 2 Bishops, for shewing themselves inclin'd to an Accommodation with the Emperour.

From the Harlem Courant, dated January 31.

Berne, January 18. Count Metternich has publish'd the following Declaration relating to the Neutrality of Neufchatel.

'WE Ernestus, Count of the Holy Empire, 'Minister of State, Ambassador Extraordinary 'and Plenipotentiary of his Prussian Majesty, and his 'Representative in the Soveraignty of Neufchatel 'and Valangin, declare, that although we publick-'ly made known, even before the Sentence of In-'vestiture, the good Intentions of his said Majesty 'to preserve the Neutrality of the State of Neuf-'chatel, his Majesty having nothing more at Heart 'than to maintain this State in the Peace and Quiet 'they have hitherto enjoy'd; Yet we are willing '(out of Regard to the Remonstrances that have 'been made to us by the People of this State, and 'particularly by the City of Neufchatel and the 'Burghers of Valangin,) hereby expresly to de-'clare anew, that we solemnly engage our self, 'promising his Majesty's Ratification if need be, 'that in Case the King of France will give sufficient Assurance, that he will not attack the State of 'Neufchatel, but that with Respect to this State 'he will let things be on the same Foot of Neutra-'lity, free Commerce, and good Neighbourhood, 'as before the Investiture conferr'd on his Majesty 'by the Soverign Tribunal of the 3 States, nothing 'shall be attempted on the Part of his Majesty di-'rectly or indirectly from the County of Neufcha-'tel against the County of Burgundy or any other 'Part of the Dominions of the King of France; 'and that not only an exact Neutrality shall be ob-'serv'd as fully as is practic'd by the Canton of 'Bern, but likewise the same good Neighbourhood 'as formerly, with solemn Promises to do nothing 'contrary thereunto; and we remit this Declaration 'to the laudable Canton of Bern, that if it shall be 'required they may be Guarantees of it. However, 'forasmuch as the Troops which France has caus'd 'to advance into the Neighbourhood of this State, 'and the great Preparations they have made there, 'give us ground to think that they design an Irrup-'tion into this Country, we find our self oblig'd to 'make timely Provision for the just and lawful De-'fence of this State, as well by its own Troops as 'by those of its Allies and Comburghers; and for-'asmuch as it indispensibly imports his Majesty to 'to know the Intention of the Court of France 'hereupon and to be fully assur'd of it, We declare, 'that this Declaration which we have made on the 'Part of his Majesty touching the Neutrality of 'Neufchatel, shall have intire effect, provided the 'King of France shall first give the Assurance above-'mention'd on his Part. Done at Neufchatel the '13th of January, 1708.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 31.

Basil, Jan. 22. The Marshal de Villars accompany'd by several General Officers, pass'd through this City t'other Day on Horseback attended by a strong Guard of Horse, to the Plain of Wiler on the other side of the Rhine, where some Years ago a Battle was fought, and having view'd it he return'd to Hunninghen where he still continues. He causes more Troops to advance from time to time between this Place and Befort, but we cannot yet discover his true Design: If it be against Neufchatel, 'tis probable it will be frustrated by the unanimous Resolution which the Protestant and Roman-Catholick Cantons have taken in their general Diet at Baden to Succour powerfully that Principality against all who shall attack it. The Marquis de Puisieux who who arriv'd at Baden the 17th, made a Speech to the Diet the 18th, and propos'd to them to take into their keeping the said Principality till a general Peace be made: But that Proposition was rejected, because it was injurious to the rightful Soveraignty and Authority of the King of Prussia and the 3 States of Neufchatel. The Canton of Bern has 16000 Men in a readiness to march to the Assistance of the Inhabitants habitants of Neufchatel if Occasion require, that of Zurich have 12000 ready, that of Schafhuysen 10000, and our Canton 14000; not to mention the Troops which the other Cantons will furnish.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Jan. 31.
